REMARKS

On 2/11/16 at approximately 1230 hours I responded to Washington Street at Broad Street for the report of a motor vehicle accident with fluids on the road.

Upon arrival I observed a gray Volkswagen Passat bearing CT registration 0AWJT9 which had rear ended the other vehicle involved. I spoke with the operator Jennifer Welch (34). Welch stated her accelerator became stuck under her floor mat, which caused her to hit the car in front of her. I asked dispatch to run Welch's Oregon driver's license (OR3324680). Dispatch informed me Welch's license is suspended.

The other operator stated two men had witnessed the incident and they believed Welch was texting when the accident occurred. I placed a phone call to the witnesses and spoke with _____ stated he was the passenger in the vehicle directly behind Welch. _____ said Welch had her "head down" and was not looking where she was going before the incident happened. _____ stated he believed Welch was texting.

Welch was issued MSC # MC228475 for 14-215 Driving with a suspended license, 14-240 Failure to travel a safe distance apart, and 14-296aa(e)1st Texting while driving. She was given a court date of 2/25/16 at GA09 in Middletown and released on a PTA.

REMARKS

On 02/20/16 at approximately 0100 hours, I was dispatched to a report of a domestic disturbance. The suspect was said to have left the home.

Upon arrival I spoke to the victim who stated that her boyfriend had called her earlier in the night asking for her to pick him up from a bar in Cromwell and she refused. He told her that he had been in a fight at the bar he was at. When her boyfriend/suspect came home he was angry and he began yelling at her and destroying things. I observed broken glass, a broken lamp and an overturned table in the bedroom. The victim went on to say that she was in bed sleeping when he returned home and she was forced out of bed and the suspect was pushing her around and kicked her several times. The victim showed me two different large swollen and bruised areas on her legs where the suspect had kicked her. Additionally, there were broken and disheveled items in the kitchen. She said that when she called police he got into his vehicle and left.

Police were able to make contact with him over the phone and the suspect returned. He was highly intoxicated and slurring and repeating himself. The suspect stated that when he came home intoxicated his girlfriend was angry and was throwing pots and pans at him and struck him with a frying pan. He said that she destroyed the house and knocked everything over because the house is his. He said that he walked away because he didn't want to get into trouble. No pots and or pans were located on the floor or were even visible in the kitchen.

The suspect was issued a misdemeanor summons to court for Disorderly Conduct with the next available court date of 2/22/16. He was also issued a conditions of release which stated that he was not to have contact with the victim, and not be in possession of any controlled substance until his court date.

The victim elected to leave the residence and go to a family members' home

REMARKS

On 02/21/16 at 18:15 hours, I, Officer Ortiz responded to a house in Middletown, Ct on a reported physical domestic. Sgt. Mazzotta and Officers Tiano and Wasilewski assisted.

On arrival, we were met outside by Shaun C. Brassard and Victim 2. Victim 2 was crying and holding a child. I recognized both offenders immediately from previous police contacts.

Shaun and Victim 2 were in a physical disturbance after arguing over money. Victim 2 was pushed by Shaun causing a fall. Victim 2 was observed with two fresh (minor) scratches to the back of her left hand. The couples child was in the living room and within arms reach of the offender and victim during the physical disturbance compromising the child's safety. Strewn throughout the living room and kitchen floor were broken glass and broken picture frames.

Shaun was handcuffed and transported to police lockup for processing by this Officer. Prior to leaving, Shaun handed me a $20 bill and I gave it to Officer Tiano so he could give it to victim 2 as requested.

Shaun was processed and charged with disorderly conduct, 53a-182 and risk of injury to a child, 53-21. Shaun is currently being held in police lockup on a $20,000 surety bond. There are no court orders on file.

Case considered closed by arrest.

REMARKS

On 02/21/16 at 18:15 hours, I, Officer Ortiz responded to a house in Middletown, Ct on a reported physical domestic. Sgt. Mazzotta and Officers Tiano and Wasilewski assisted. On arrival, we were met outside by victim 1 and Kayla I. Mello. Kayla was crying and holding a child. I recognized them both immediately from previous police contacts.

Kayla and victim 1 were in a physical disturbance after arguing over money. Victim 1 was punched on his face by Kayla and then Kayla was pushed by victim causing a fall. Kayla was observed with two fresh (minor) scratches to the back of her left hand. The couples child was in the living room and within arms reach during the physical disturbance compromising the child's safety. Kayla was carrying the child when she punched victim 1 outside, which was witnessed by a neighbor. throughout the living room and kitchen floor were broken glass and broken picture frames.

Prior to leaving, victim1 handed me a $20 bill and I gave it to Officer Tiano so he could give it to Kayla as requested.

A short time later, Kayla was transported to police lockup for processing for an incident that occurred moments after this officer left the scene with victim 1. Officer Tiano handed Kayla the $20 bill and still upset, she turned on the gas stove and lit it on fire in the presence of the aforementioned officers. See Officer Tiano's supplement arrest report for arrest detail.

Kayla was charged with disorderly conduct, 53a-182, risk of injury to a child, 53-21 and reckless burning, 53a-114. Kayla is currently being held in police lockup on a $20,000 surety bond.

An oral report was provided to DCF. Offenders did not report being injured. There are no court orders on file.

Case considered closed by arrest.

REMARKS

On 02/21/2016 at approximately 00:43 hours I, Officer Austin Smith was dispatched to meet up with Wesleyan University Public Safety in the area of 21 Vine Street. WPS personnel were alerted to a male who was unconscious and lying face down between a retaining wall and the sidewalk on the east side of Vine Street across from number 21. WPS requested that Middletown Police respond because they awoke the individual who was now becoming extremely agitated.

Upon my arrival on scene Officers Stroud and Arroyo were already attempting to identify the individual, but were being met with resistance. The individual was disheveled, his eyeglasses were broken and his clothing was covered in mud. The individual just kept yelling that he did not, "give a fuck." At this time there were several WPS employees on scene as well as a crew from Hunters Ambulance. The individual continued to be verbally abusive towards both WPS and the police. He was yelling loudly and using profanity. He was stating that he knew his rights and that the police were violating all of his civil rights. It should be noted that the location was a public sidewalk and that there were people walking by the area that appeared to be concerned by his behavior.

After requesting that the individual hand over his drivers license for identification purposes multiple times and being told no, Officer Stroud was eventually able to grab the individual's wallet from him. The individual was then positively identified using his Mississippi non-driver ID as Charles Loggins

I attempted several times to ask Loggins where he was staying and if he was able to walk, but kept getting interrupted by him and told that he did not, "give a fuck." I was trying to assess if he needed medical attention or if he was simply intoxicated and would be able to care for himself. It was determined that based on his erratic behavior, disheveled appearance and that fact that he was discovered unconscious in public that he would be transported to the hospital via ambulance for detox.

It was immediately clear that Loggins was not going to be transported willingly. Officers Arroyo attempted to grab Loggins' arm to lead him to the stretcher at the rear of the ambulance. When Officer Arroyo touched Loggins' arm he became physically combative. Officers Stroud, Arroyo and I attempted to control Loggins to prevent injury to officers on scene as well as himself. Officer Stroud attempted to apply handcuffs to Loggins, but he was able to break free with one arm. Loggins then punched Officer Stroud in the left side of his head with a closed fist. Loggins was taken to the ground at that time and handcuffs were successfully applied. The handcuffs were double locked and checked for proper fit. Officer Arroyo also sustained scratches to the left side of his neck as a result of struggling with Loggins.

Loggins was placed in the backseat of my police cruiser. Loggins was throwing himself around in the backseat of the car, slamming his head into the plexiglass cage and screaming loudly. The entire vehicle was rocking back and forth violently while he did this and pedestrian walking by even asked if he was going to be alright. While en-route to headquarters, I could hear Loggins clearing his throat and spitting constantly in the backseat.

Once at police headquarters, I was met in the sally port by Officers Arroyo, Stroud and Sergeant Petrulis.

Sergeant Petrulis opened the rear door of the car and asked Loggins if he would be cooperative so that he could be processed and released. Loggins told Sergeant Petrulis to, "fuck off," and, "not to fucking touch him." Loggins refused to get out of the car on his own and had to be physically removed. Loggins was carried into the cellblock and stripped of his personal property and outer garments. Loggins was then placed into a padded cell designated for emotionally disturbed persons until such a time that he was calm enough to be processed.

Charles Loggins was charged with violating CGS 53a-181 Breach of peace, 53a-167a Interfering with police, and (2 counts) 53a-167c assault on a police officer. Loggins was held on a $50,000 surety bond and scheduled to appear at GA09 Middletown on 02/22/2016.

End.

REMARKS

On 02/15/2016 I was dispatched to a report of a fight. Sergeant Petrusis was the first to arrive on scene and observe an active fight in progress. Sergeant Petrusis used OC spray on the individuals involved in order to stop the fight and affected on-site arrests of both involved individuals.

Upon my arrival, two individuals were handcuffed and being decontaminated by other officers. I spoke to the employee of the convenience store who said that the two that were involved in the fight began to argue inside of the store and when they got outside by the gas pumps they began to fight. He was unable to point out if one or the other were the aggressor.

I then spoke to a witness on scene who stated that the incident began earlier at a restaurant / bar they were all at. There was an argument between the two involved individuals Victim Offender 1 and Victim Offender 2 however he was unsure what provoked the argument. After they had all left the restaurant the witness was in his vehicle and was driving behind Victim Offender 2. The witness went on to say that he observed Victim Offender 1 walking south on the side of the road as Victim Offender 2 was heading south on South Main St. The witness said that Victim Offender 2 drove his truck off the road towards Victim Offender 1 but did not make any contact with him. The witness did not know if either the argument in the bar or the incident in the road were the catalyst for the fight but he observed the fight in the parking lot of the gas station. The witness refused to give a statement because he knew both individuals and didn't want to get involved.

I transported Victim Offender 2 and Officer Spedding transported Victim Offender 1 back to Middletown Police Headquarters where they were both further decontaminated and processed.

I attempted to find out the root of what had occurred in the parking lot however both individuals were intoxicated and blamed the other for starting the fight.

Both were processed and charged with Breach of Peace and later released on a $2500.00 non-surety bond with a pending court date of 02/22/2016.
